Descriptions of Upcoming Adult Bible Classes

Bible Study Methods

Led by Pastor Brad Johnson

Bible Study Skills, in the Summer, Pastor Brad?! Well...it seems a bit aggressive, but 'nothing ventured, nothing gained'! #1 Question: will there be homework? #1 Answer: this is a challenge-by-choice course. Nobody has to do the homework. However, in-class discussion will be weighted in favor of those students who complete the homework prior to class. Students will gain an understanding of the nature of the Scriptures and learn to study the text on their own, drawing Biblical conclusions and making personal applications. Required Texts: NIV Bible (1984, preferred), & "Studying, Interpreting and Applying the Bible" by Walter Henrichsen and Gayle Jackson (available used for $6 and up from Amazon).

Ten Indicators of a Healthy Church

Led by Rob Mitchell

Our denomination, the Evangelical Free Church of America, has identified 10 areas that are indicators of the health of a local church. Join Rob Mitchell, current Hillcrest Church Chairman, as he considers the health of Hillcrest in regard to these 10 indicators: God's Word, passionate spirituality, fruitful evangelism, Spirit-filled worship, pursuit of the Great Commission, leadership multiplication, church planting, stewardship of resources, intentional disciple-making, and loving relationships.

Esther

Led by Ken Baldinger

The good, the bad, and the beautiful. A historical story that raises questions that are relevant for today.
